

Greater Kansas City Chapter

9th Annual

Law Enforcement Appreciation Luncheon

When: May 1, 2008, 11:30 a.m.—1:30 p.m.

Place: Kansas City, Missouri Police Department Training Academy
6885 NE Pleasant Valley Road
Kansas City Missouri 64119

Purpose: Honor law enforcement professionals

Speaker: James Corwin, KCMO Police Department Chief of Police

Topic: KCPD Training Academy--Capabilities and Future Plans

Special Presentation: Thomas R. Meyer Award recognizing LE officer who improves relationships between police officers, the community, and the private security industry

Driving Directions: Take I-435 north of I-35 towards KCI and exit on Shoal Creek Parkway.
(Near Worlds of Fun/ Claycomo Ford Plant) At the Exit, turn left (driving on the overpass).
The road appears to be closed/barricaded due to construction.

Drive around the barricade and continue on Shoal Creek Parkway to the stop sign.

At the stop sign, which is Pleasant Valley Road, turn left and then make a right onto the P.D. campus.

Curve to the left and go to the largest Building on the campus, marked "Police Academy."

Park out front.

