From the Chair...

Well, we all welcomed 2011 in with a burst of sunny weather and a lack of snow, though by the time you read this Mother Nature has likely caught up on that debt. I am honored to step into the role of Chairperson for the 2011 calendar year, and it's my hope and belief that this will be a great year for us all.

Your Chapter 50 leadership consists of Jason Shields (Vice-Chair), William Getz CPP (Treasurer), and Dr. Ken Christopher (Secretary), and myself serving as your 2011 Executive Board. We have several new and continuing committee chairpersons, including:

Steve Brown CPP (Website)
Brian Parkhurst (Newsletter)
Rick Easley (Law Enforcement Liaison)
Dennis Smith (Public Relations)
Mike Betten CPP (Certification)
Renee Wakefield-Campbell (Hospitality)
Stuart Clark (Speaker)
Joe Carpenter (Executive Recruitment)
John Krumme (Historian)
Jon Gann (Golf Tournament)
David Brown CPP (Membership)

These folks are consistently active in the chapter and I have always found them very willing to help and answer questions.

The CPP workshop is currently underway with a healthy population. If you are interested in taking the exam for CPP certification (or PSP, or PCI), give yourself a great leap forward by participating in a workshop offered by the Kansas City Chapter. The current class meets every Tuesday from 9-11 a.m. (contact me for details)

With the onset of the 2011 calendar year, the Member-Get-a-Member campaign kicks off. Already this year Chapter 50 is on our way to winning the prize for largest number of new members, but we need your help in recruiting new members. The many benefits of being a member of ASIS include professional networking, preferred pricing on certification and education programs, access to the online member directory, subscriptions to Security Management and Dynamics, advocacy and member outreach, and more! Please consider recruiting someone to join ASIS today!

I'd like to take a moment in this particular letter and thank outgoing Chairman Stephen A. Brown, CPP, CHS for his effort and hard work as Chapter Chair for 2010. Steve has graciously volunteered to lead our Website Committee on improving and updating our website. Keep watching the website as it grows and changes! Steve, thanks for your hard work and dedication!

Thanks again, and have a great first quarter!

Board Certifications in Security

The standard for security practitioners. Worldwide.

ASIS International has set the standards for certification in security for more than 25 years. Certification plays an important role in the security industry by identifying high professional standards. As an indicator of qualifications, certification is documented evidence of expertise and experience. It is an objective means of distinguishing highly competent security practitioners from their less experienced peers.

Events of the past decade have led to a fundamental shift in the security landscape, resulting in an ever-increasing demand for heightened security to protect people, facilities, assets and data on a global scale. Today, more than ever before, organizations place a high degree of importance on hiring, contracting with, and promoting credentialed security practitioners.

ASIS administers the following certification programs:

Certified Protection Professional (CPP®) - This certification designates individuals who have demonstrated competency in all areas constituting security management.

Professional Certified Investigator (PCI®) - Holders of the PCI® certification have demonstrated education and/or experience in the fields of case management, evidence collection, and case presentation.

Physical Security Professional (PSP®) - The PSP® designation is the certification for those whose primary responsibility is to conduct threat surveys, design integrated security systems that include equipment, procedures and people, or install, operate and maintain those systems.

This course teaches participants how to apply all phases of the DHS and FEMA risk management process to jurisdictional critical infrastructure and key resources. Through lectures, discussions and classroom activities, students learn methods to identify and prioritize risks from all hazards, assess vulnerabilities, estimate consequences, and use equipment, training, and exercises to mitigate risk. The first day will be classroom instruction and the second day has a field activity.

Target Audience: Suggested participants include awareness, supervisory, and managerial staff who respond to or have oversight responsibilities regarding incidents caused by terrorism, natural disaster, major accidents and all other hazards. Course participants general include the following disciplines: Law Enforcement; Fire Service; Emergency Medical Services; Hazardous Materials; Public Health; Public Works; Emergency Management; Emergency Communications; and Governmental Administrative.

Prerequisites: There are no required prerequisites for this course.

Certificates for this course will be awarded by the Texas Engineering Extension Service (TEEX) via Texas A&M University. For more information about TEEX and other courses offered by them online and classroom based, visit their website: www.teex.com.

The deadline to register is May 16, 2011

Lodging reimbursements will be available for those traveling 60 miles or more (up to 2 nights).

ITEM: Obama Administration to Provide Intelligence on Cyber attacks to Industry and Academia

"The Obama administration will provide universities and businesses with government intelligence and law enforcement information about malicious Internet activities so that they can protect their critical assets ... The intelligence community is privy to information about foreign governments, such as China, that Americans fear could be trying to extricate intellectual property from technology firms or research institutions. The FBI, in the past, has learned of holes in automated banking security, which it then told 4,000 financial sector organizations about so they could shore up systems before hackers exploited the vulnerabilities." ITEM: Pre-Disaster Mitigation Grant Program Reauthorized

President Obama has signed a reauthorization of "appropriations for the Federal Emergency Management Agency's Pre-Disaster Mitigation program for fiscal years 2011-2013." The "grants program for state and local governments [aims] at helping prevent damage due to natural disasters before it happens. The measure had broad support among state and local emergency leaders." Rockwell, M, 2011, Jan 12, Government Security News, http://www.gsnmagazine.com/node/22189?c=infrastructure_protection#

ITEM: Missouri Legislative Action: Urban Issues House Committee Passes Bill to Give St. Louis Local Control of Police Department

"The St. Louis police control bill (HB 71) passed 7 - 2 and will now go to the House floor. If passed in the House, the bill would transfer control of the police department from the state to the city of St. Louis. That city hasn't had control of its own police force for more than 150 years." Missouri Government News, 2011, Jan 19, Missouri Digital News, <http://www.mdn.org/2011/STORIES/NEWS00.HTM#4>
